

STATUTORY DECLARATION

I, Malcolm Parkee of Walshes Manor, Walshes Road, CROWBOROUGH, East Sussex, TN6 3RB, England, solemnly and sincerely DECLARE as follows:

1. My name is Malcolm PARKEE, but I have been known as Mick Parkee for many years. I was born in Australia in 1937. I received a Chemistry degree in 1959, and first came into Scientology in Sydney in 1962. I then decided to join staff in Sydney for several years.
2. In 1968 I came to Saint Hill to get further Scientology training and processing, and whilst here I decided to join the Church at Saint Hill in 1969.
3. Between late 1972 to early 1974 I held the function of Master at Arms. This meant that I was responsible for all Ethics matters for both the on-lines public and staff members at Saint Hill during this time. Any public intern ethics matters came to me.
4. I recall David Miscavige was a very bright young student and auditor. He was also simply a member of the public taking services at Saint Hill – and had absolutely no special or preferential status of any kind. Had there been any ethics situation concerning David Miscavige, I would have been the first to know about it. I do not recall him committing even a minor infraction such as being late for course, let alone anything serious. He was never in, or caused, any trouble at all in the period I was in charge of Saint Hill Ethics from 1972 to 1974.
5. I have seen Mr. Miscavige on several occasions since the 1970's. The first time was in 1984 at Saint Hill, and I did not recognise him at first. I have casually met him 5 or 6 times since then. Each time we speak it is with the same easy friendly relations.

AND I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the Statutory Declarations Act 1835
