

HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS AND INTERGOVERNMENT AND GOVERNMENT BODIES CONCERNED WITH HUMAN RIGHTS

Many organizations around the world dedicate their efforts to the protection of human rights and bringing an end to human rights abuses. Major human rights organizations document violations and call for remedial action, both at a governmental and grass-roots level. Public support and condemnation of abuses is important to success, as human rights organizations are most effective when their calls for reform are backed by strong public advocacy. United for Human Rights encourages everyone to visit the following websites and to become active in one or more of these organizations' programs.

The descriptions of the organizations below are taken from their own sites.
